

NEW DAMAGE

Info

„Ze'eb & Oreb“ comes as their label debut on Firefield Records (EMG - European Music Group) into the stores. :new damage enlisted Melting Point Braunschweig's help (e.g. Raemonn, Such A Surge, Westernhagen, Till Burgwächter) for mastering the upcoming album. The formation was grounded in 2000 and starts today a much more provoking Metal offensive with Ingo Bajonczak (Supersoma) in front. They enter stages with a mix of melancholic sounds and brutal guitar power and appeal to the ambitious hearing of their audience. :new damage's influences are Progressive-heroes like Dream Theater, Textures, as well as the Neo-Trashers Pantera or even Doom-kindred bands like Crowbar. You will find progressive elements combined with classic Metal riffings in manner of Sevendust on the new album. The formation focusses on profounding music, that is the reason why understanding the complexity of some songs needs more than one listening. „Closer“ seems to be scary and moves by delivering rather dissonant guitar- and bassparts. „Mospes Whinster“ surprises with its dizzy alteration of speed. The chorus of the somehow straight-appearing „Elements“ seems to remind of a catchy tune. The band from Krefeld (Germany) only uses one guitar that is supported by an atypical bassplaying. With abnormal breaks and displaced syncopes the drum puts groovy and dodgy accents to the sound. Expressive melodies, strong growling parts and aggressive shouts complete the lineup of :new damage. Past shows with Waltari and Volbeat can be listed. Now the guys are looking forward to present „Ze'eb & Oreb“, to enthuse their old fans and to conquer the new ones with their distinctive stage power.
