Facts

The guys from Switzerland already caught a lot of attention with the debut record 84. But compared to the successor EXTINCTION, 84 was just a gently breeze and a harbinger to the massive hurricane that is about to come! Beside trash influences (Destruction, Kreator, Exodus, Forbidden), some influence from Holland-Death (Asphyx) has sneaked its way onto the record.

Total Annihilation were founded in 2006. After a demotape and an EP, their debut record 84 was released through Firefield Records. The album was able to score stunning reviews across Europe. Some reviews even prophesied that Total Annihilation will soon rise up to a big number in the trash scene.

To get closer to this goal, the band once again invaded V.O. Pulver's (Gurd, Destruction) Little Creek Studio's to forge the new record under his guidance. Two years ago the motto was „Trash Metal und Dosenbier“ but now it's „Black Jack und Nutten“.
Things start to get nasty...
